

Certified Management Accountant (CMA)

Program Overview

Why become a CMA?

Being a CMA sends a Clear Message to the Professional World and Companies. It shows the Mastery of Advanced Financial and Accounting skills, a High Level of Competency, and Serious Commitment. This makes the CMA essential for Accounting and Financial Professionals. Earning the Certification also Opens the Door to a Worldwide Elite Professional Network through the Institute of Management Accountants (IMA®) that connects more than 18,000 Active CMA's. CMAs are rewarded in terms of Higher Salaries, more Challenging Work Responsibilities, and Greater Career Advancement Opportunities. Leading Employers Selectively Recruit CMAs to Fill Positions that Require Vital Accounting and Financial Management Skills: from Multinational Corporations to Private Firms, Academic Institutions, and Non-Profit Organizations.

What does CMA mean?

Earning the CMA Credential Certifies you have the Skills needed to Succeed at Financial Planning, Analysis, Control, and Decision Support, and it also represents your Commitment to Professional Ethics. In addition to these Basic skills, the CMA Certification Focuses on Advanced Skills such as Budgeting, Forecasting, and Managing Costs. All these are required to Effectively Evaluate Investment Opportunities and Support Strategic Financial Decisions based on Solid Analysis and Sound Ethics. Employers value the CMA because it drives Long-Term Growth, Representing Comprehensive Financial Analysis Plus Accurate Financial Reporting.

Who should Apply?

The CMA credential is Ideal for Staff Accountants, Cost Accountants, Senior Accountants, Budget Analysts, Financial Analysts, Finance Managers, Finance Controllers, Treasurers, Vice Presidents (VP), Chief Executive Officers (CEO), Chief Financial Officers (CFO) and even more Individuals with a Vested Interest in the Field. Earning the CMA will make you Part of a Network of over 18,000 Credentialed Peers Worldwide.

The Real Value of the CMA?

The CMA is Beneficial on many Levels and is in Demand. So much so that the Value can be clearly seen in Annual Earnings, as shown below. On Average, CMAs earn nearly $30,000 Higher Annual Compensation than non-Certified Professionals do:

Non-Certified Accounting Professional

$105,497

CMA Accounting Professional

$139,578

Eligibility to Sit for the CMA Exam

The CMA exam and credential are administered by the Institute of Management Accountants, Inc. (IMA). The IMA publishes its eligibility requirements to earn the CMA credential on their website. It is the CMA Exam candidate's responsibility to determine whether the IMA requirements to earn a CMA credential have been met. CMA Exam review courses are not required to be eligible to sit for the exam and are solely intended to help a student prepare for the exam through supplemental review material.

Learn more about the IMA's CMA Exam eligibility requirements by visiting: <https://How to Become a CMA>

Examination Administration

The CMA examination is given in a computer-based format and is offered at Prometric Testing Centres located throughout the world. An up-to-date listing of all Prometric Testing Centres can be found at Prometric's website, www.prometric.com/ICMA. Parts 1 and 2 are offered during the following three testing windows:

- January/February
- May/June
- September/October

Registrations for Parts 1 and 2 will close after the 15th of February, June, and October.

Register for an exam:

- Online at the online store.
- By calling 800-638-4427, or (201) 573-9000 with your credit card information.

Rescheduling or Cancellation of a Scheduled Appointment

Cancelling your appointment with Prometric does not generate a refund or an automatically approved test window change. It only allows you to have the possibility to reschedule the appointment for a different date in the same testing window. You can cancel your appointment and reschedule it for another date within the same testing window if you cancel 72 hours prior to your scheduled appointment. Prometric will charge you a fee if you cancel your exam within 30 days of the scheduled appointment date.

If you cancel your appointment with Prometric in less than 72 hours of your appointment, you will forfeit your exam fees with ICMA, and you will need to purchase a new registration.

You must sit for the exam during the testing window that you registered for. To cancel or reschedule your appointment online, please have your confirmation number ready and visit www.prometric.com/ICMA. Or you can call 800-479-6370 if you are in the U.S. or the Regional Registration Contact Center if you are located outside the U.S. Both options are available 24 hours, seven days a week. If you do not comply with the cancellation policy, you will be considered a “no-show” and you will need to re-register with ICMA and repay the examination fee.
